COINAGE OF SILVER.

It Has Been Stopped by the Government of India.

WILL AFFECT MANY COUNTRIES.

The United States Probably More Interested Than Any Foreign Power-A Long Conference Between the President and Secretary Carlisle on the Subject.

LONDON, June 27. - Telegrams received from Calcutta by the Anglo-Indian bankers here, state that the Indian government has stopped the coinage of silver for private account at the India

The correspondence between the government of India and the India office has been issued. It opens with a letter from the India council, under date of March, 1892, urging the home government to aid in the settlement of the silver question by an international agreement, failing which, not to defer determining upon an Indian policy, as if an international agreement should not be obtained the United States might suddenly stop the coinage of silver, leaving India unprepared.

The other communications disense the fall in the rupeo values and the fluctuations in the rates of exchange.

The council in a letter written in June, 1892, advises that if the international monetary conference at Brussels fails and a direct agreement between India and the United States can-not be attained, the mints of India be closed to the free coinage of silvor and a gold standard be introduced.

In a minute Mr. Barbour, financial secretary of India, opposes the stoppage of free coinage until it becomes evident that the United States will not adopt free coinage. Mr. Barbonr estimates that the total active circulation in India amounts to 115,000.000 rupees. while a much larger proportion is hoarded.

To establish a gold currency, with a full legal tender currency composed en-tirely of gold, it would be necessary to withdraw from circulation 1,150,000,000 of rapees, replacing them by £77, 000,-000 [sterling gold. He therefore contends that with a gold standard in India a large portion of the circulation must continue in silver, with silver a legal tender to any amount. If both metals be maintained in circulation. gold coinage to the total amount of £15, 000,000 will suffice.

Mr. Long, in a minute to the council in August, 1892, discussed the adoption of the gold standard, and concludes by suggesting that the ratio of conversion be about 1 to 20.

In a subsequent telegram from the Herschell commission as adopted the council at Simla. In advising the Indian government to exchange gold at the rate of 6d to the rupee, the commission says that the object is to guard against a considerable rise in the exchange. Hereafter the ratio ought to bo raised if circumstances make it ad

HOW IT AFFECTS US.

Washington Authorities Greatly Worried Over the Announcement.

Washington, June 27.-The president, Secretary Carlisle and the financial officers of the government generally received their first anthentic news of the startling action of the government of India suspending silver coinnge, through the press dispatches. There has been rumors on the subject earlier in the day, but they were passed upon as rumors only, though their substantial accuracy was not doubted.

When the reports of Mr. Gladstone's announcement in the house of com-mons and Lord Kimberly's statement in the house of lords were received the gravity of the situation became at once apparent. Mr. Carlisle immediately went over to the White House and for nearly two hours discussed the bearings of this action with the president with out reaching any positive conclusion as to a line of action to be adopted. The conference was renewed at Woodley, the president's suburban retreat, later in the evening and was protracted until far in the night.

The circumstances are regarded as too serious to permit of any authentic expression of opinion as to the future policy of the United States until all the facts are fully digested. This much, however, can be stated with absolute confidence that the action of the India government in closing the India mints to free coinage of silver, is regarded by the United States as doing away with the necessity for reconvening the international monetary conference which was to have met in Brussels this fall.

It is not believed that this action was taken without express orders from the English government, which has general supervision and control over Indian affairs. During the session of the international monetary conforence at Brus sels last December, General Strachey delegate of British India, in an ad dress delivered before the conference,

"As an indication of the strange condition of affairs, it may be further mentioned that there has lately arison in India a serious agitation on this subject, and that pressure has been put in the government to take direct action for the purpose of applying a remedy to the numerous evils which are re-garded as being due to the fall in the value of the rupee, affecting not only the public finances and administration, but strongly advocated by many influential persons and authorities is the adoption by India of a gold standard and the suspension of the free coinage of silver at the Indian mints.

"In these circumstances the delegates of India have been instructed that while studying with the greatest care and good will in concert with our colleagues at the conference, every practical proposal suggested to ensure wider use of silver as currency, they are on no account to give any pledge that may interfere with the complete freedom of action of the government of India in respect to any measure affecting the currency of India it might desire to adopt."

In view of this announcement at the conference, the action of the Indian government was not altogether a sur-prise to treasury officials, though what its effect may be on future action of the United States can not be accurately gauged. Information obtained from the treas ury department shows that the world's product of silver during the last fiscal year was 152,000,000 ounces, of which the United States purchased 54,000,000 ounces outside of the silver used in the arts, which is estimated at about 7,000. •000 ounces. The consumption by India was 45,000,000 ounces, which was coined. this making the United States and India combined use 106,000,000 cunces of silver purchased last year, leaving 46. 000,000 ounces of silver for uso in the arts in the other countries of tho world. The nighest price ever attained by silver in the United States was the time of the passage of the Bland silver bill, Feb. 28, 1878, when the price was $1.22 per onnce. The silver dollar was then worth 96 cents. At no period since then has the silver dollar been worth so much. When the Sherman act went into effect August, 1890, there was a spurt in the price of silver, and it went up to $1.21 per ounce. In the time between the passage of the Bland law in 1878 and the passage of the Sherman law in 1890 silver went to 92 cents per ounce which was a maximum priceduring that period.

Since August, 1890, the price has gradually declined with fluctuations until June 26, 2893, it reached the lowest point on record. At yesterday's price of 79 cents per fine ounce, the silver dollar is worth 60 1-2 cents as bul-

Sinco 1835 India has coined silver free. During the last calendar year the Indian government, coined 46,000,000 ounces. Since the passage of the Bland and Sherman acts the United States; have coined $426,000,000 of silver. Of the amount of silver purchased under the Sherman act 127,000,000 ounces remain uncoined in the vaults of the Treasury officials opposed to the free coinage of silver, while admitting that this radical action by India will temporarily result to her disadvantage, believe that with a rich soil and 250,000,-Earl of Kimberly to the viceroy of India, dated June 7, 1893, the former the reaction is over India will recover India, dated June 7, 1893, the former the reaction is over India will recover announces the recommendations of the from the shock. It is pointed out that her exports of merchandise and cereals largely exceed her imports, and now that the value of the rupee, the current money of the country, is definitely fixed at 1 shilling and 4 pence (32 cents in our money), the loss which she has suffered heretofore in the fluctuations of value of the rupeo will be done away with, and by many it is claimed that the large hordings of gold known to exist in India will soon begin to be brought from their hidingplaces and be coverted into coin.

During the last 50 years the net imports of gold into India aggregated about $800,000,000. In a report made to the Fiftieth congress by Mr. Edward Atkinson of Boston upon the present status of bimetal lism in Europe, touching upon the import of gold into British India, he says 'Of the imports of gold, every small amount has been coined into domestic gold coin. The total coinage for the 0 years since 1835 amounts to not more than 2,853,399 rupees; the rest of the gold, about 1,276,000,000 rupees, has been used for ornament or has been hoarded in the form of British and Australian sovercigns by the richer natives, and in the treasuries of the Indian princes. The gold that once has flowed to India is lost, almost without exception, to trade. The natives are careful watchers of the bullion market and have not failed to note that in recent time the value of silver at the bazars has become less, as compared with gold. Ornaments and hoards of silver are less highly prized than in former years. In India, as elsewhere.

gold is taking the place of silver." These views of course represent only the anti-silver side of the question. The suddenness of the springing of this action has hardly yet given the silver advocates time to be heard.

Senator Stewart is at the present time almost the only prominent silver man in Washington. There is no question that this matter will come up for extended discussion in the next cabinet meeting. All the members except Secretary Gresham are in the city.

New York Deuler on the Subject. NEW YORK, June 27.—A member of a largo firm of bullion dealers said with regard to the closing of the India mints against private bullion: "I don't see how the action of the Indian government in closing the mints will much diminish the demand for silver in India. If the mints are closed to private persons then the govornment will have to import silver for coinage purposes in place of private parties. The only possible way in which India's demand for silver would be lessened would be by the cessation of the expansion of her exports in consequence of the low prices of silver. We do not see that, beyond sentiment, the silver market will be greatly affected."

Fielden, Neebe and Schwab Released From Jollet.

PARDONED BY THE GOVERNOR.

Ills Acilon Has Created a Great Surprise. He Has Prepared a Statement, but It Has Not Been Made Public-Great Re joleing in New York City.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., June 27 .- Anarchists Fielden, Neebe and Schwab have been pardoned by Governor Altgeld. These were three of the murderous gang which threw the bombs in the Haymarket riot in 1886, killing the po lice. The rest met death on the scaffold. Lingg blew his own head off with a bomb while in prison.

Fielden and Schwab were sentenced to be hanged with Spies, Fisher, Lings and Engel, but their sentences were commuted to life imprisonment. Neebe commuted to life imprisonment. Neebe was sentenced to a term of 14 years' imprisonment. Ben Butler took the case of those just liberated through the higher courts.

curing a pardon for each of them from the hands of Governor Altgeld left with them for Joliet. It is supposed Mr. Dreyer's influence was decisive. It was not even known that the case was being considered by the governor and his action created great surprise. The governor has prepared a long statement, and Railroad Commissioner Cantrall left with copies of it for Chicago press. It has not yet been given ont here, but it is said the governor criticises Gary and Bonfield severely.

Their Leading Lawyer Talks.

Chicago, June 27 .- "I am exceedingly gratified but not at all surprised.' said Captain W. P. Black, who was the leading counsel for the defense in the anarchist trial, in speaking about the governor's decision. "I have always believed that in the interest of justice these men would be pardoned. knew that as soon as the public conscience had recovered its tone and the public its judgment they would be restored to liberty. I have only been disappointed in the length of time it has taken to bring about this result, al though I have no complaint to make on that score considering the time Governor Altgeld has taken in his consideration of the facts. It is about 90 days since I sent to the governor my views of the matter and the reasons why I be lieved a pardon would only be an act of simple justice. I am very glad that justice has at last been done."

Men and women shouted with joy when they heard that the three anarchists had been pardoned by Governor Altgold of Illinois. Large placards announcing the pardon of the convicted anarchists were posted within and without the saloons where the "reds" have their headquarters.

INDIAN MOUND OPENED.

Several Indlan Skeletons and Relles of Great Antiquity Uncartbed. PORTSMOUTH, O., June 27.—The large historic mound that stands near the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad, about half a mile abovo Taggart Creck, Ky. on the James King farm, has at last been opened. This mound is the largest of a group of seven which stand close to each other. For years the people of Kentucky and surrounding states have wondered what it contained, but perm ission could never be obtained before The first find was a large block of mica cut in the shape of a triangle. This was only one foot under the surface, and directly under it were two finely finished broken bowls. These evidently contained food, as there were several small bones and shells mixed in them. Nine inches boneath the bowls in a deep bed of charcoal was found the first skeleton. Its position was north and south. Near the hip was a copper badge covered with cloth made of bark, which the salts of the copper had proserved. Near the left shoulder was a fine lanco nearly six inches long, and a little to the left was a finely finished spear.

Another skeleton was found a little farther to the south. No relics were found with the same, it being a female

Around the left arm was a thin copper bracelet, and on the right arm were three large copper bracelets. Under the hands were several small pieces of copper that had evidently been beads.

The finest piece of all laid upon the front of the skuli. It was a hammered piece of copper in the shape of a swan. This had rotted in the center, but was easily put together. The copper was hammered out of the raw metal, and The whole body had evidently been covered with a mantle made of a grass of some kind, as several small pieces had been preserved that laid upon the copper.

The bones, as they laid, measured a little over 6 feet 4 inches. In life the dead must have been a very large man. From the condition of the teeth and part of the skull he was probably 40 years old at the time of demise. The original mound had been but eight feet high, for at that height was a dark streak throughout the mound of decared grass and roots, and a decayed stump of an oak tree extended from here up that had been over four feet through the center. This shows that the upper six feet and burial might have been placed there at least 30 years later than the first burial. All of the bones were very block and showed arrest terms. black and showed great age.

One Hundred Guests in the Building at the Time.

FORT SCOTT, Kan., June 27 .- The Tremont hotel in this city collapsed in the morning at 9:30 o'clock without warning to the 100 occupants. The honse was four stories high, built of brick, and the entire east wall fell, followed by the three floors and all their load of human life.

Ensic Colwell of Kincaid, Kan., and Ida Morris were badly injured. Twenty-seven occupants were taken from the second story on the west side by means of ladders, and others escaped

Va., June 27 .- A wealthy syndicate of New York Jews. headed by Seligmans, the bankers, lave purchased about 20,000 acres of land in Tucker county, upon which they propose to locate a colony composed of Jewish exiles driven from Russia. The purchases have been going on for some time very quietly, and it was not until Thursday, when the homestead of the late Dr. Harper, consisting of a large liouse, a number of outbuildings and 4,200 acres of land was sold, that either the purchasers or their projects became known. The buildings upon the Harper place alone cost $7,500, but both the land and the buildings were sold for $5,000. It is stated that the homestead will be enlarged and used as a receiving house until the land can be divided off into plots, cottages built and the full arrangements made for perfecting the Mollen Iron Kills Six Men and Injures Seven Others.

Berlin, June 27.—A terrible calamity occurred in Rohig's ironworks, at Magdeburg, Saxony. The workmen were engaged in making a heavy custing and were pouring the molten metal into the mold.

Without a moment's warning there occurred a terrific explosion, the liquid iron flying in overy direction and covering the workmen. Six men were killed outright, while seven others were so terribly burned that their recovery is despaired of. It is believed that the sand in the mold was dampened and this caused the explosion.

As each successive steamer from San Francisco arrives at Honolulu, bringing no news that Hawaii's affairs will soon be settled by the United States; the disappointment that permeates annexationists and royalists alike becomes keener. Both parties are anxious to have the vital questions of stable government decided as soon as possible. The long strain is beginning to tell on business and society. Merchants are complaining of dull times, but are hanging on hopefully, while for the first time in Honoluln social lines are beginning to be drawn. In this small community politics heretofore have never interfered with social life.

Claus Spreckels has won the first skirmish in the fight against The Star. the annexationist organ. Walter G. Smith of the paper has been held tor trial to answer a charge of criminal libel. Smith was released on $500 bail and is again running the paper, but is letting Spreckels alone, pending the result of the libel suit. Spreckels is now on the warpath against the provisional government, and though he has as yet made no new move, disquieting runors are being circulated as to his intention of piaching business men who are nufortunate enough to be under financial obligation to him. The advisability of taking away from Spreekels' Oceanic Steamship company the mail subsidy of $100 per month and giving it to the Canadian Pacific or Pacific Mail, is still being considered by the government.

Paul Neumann, the ex-queen's legal adviser, returned from the United States a few days after the publication of the power of attorney given him when he went to Washington to fight annexation. He treats the matter of its publication here very lightly, and says there never has been any secret as to the contents of the documents. He is still opposed to annexation, and thinks that the protectorate, with whatever form of government a majority of the people vote, is best for Hawaii. The annexationists are making great capital of what they consider the evidence of the ex-queen's weakness and selfishness. Thousands of copies of the power of attorney, printed in the Hawaiian language, he e been circulated among all the islands with the result, it is claimed, that the natives are flocking to the annexationists' standard in greater numbers than ever before.

As a result of the recent dynamite scare the provisional government has passed a law fixing the penalty for the unlawful use of explosives at a fine from $250 to $5,000 and imprisonment not to exceed 20 years. The unlawful possession of explosives will be punished by a maximum fine of $3,000 and imprisonment for five years. The palace which was occupied by the government two weeks ago, has been still further protected by placing of sandbag barricades at exposed points. Arms and ammunition have been served out to a secret organization called "The Citizens' Rescrve," which numbers about 600 men. Claus Spreckels has been accused of offering to purchase arms for royalists, and extra guards will be posted at outside ports to pre-vent their being landed. If the government ascertains that its information is correct, Spreckels is likely to receive some harsh treatment.

The government claims to have authentic information that Mr. Blount, with the exception of a few brief statcments, has not yet made a report to the stato department at Washington as to the result of his investigation, and that a report will not be sent on for two weeks. The government has decided to do nothing further in the matter of a treaty until information is received from Thurston as to the result of his interview with President Cleveland.

A special steamer arrived June 18 from Japan with over 1,700 Japanese contract laborers brought here to work on the sugar plantations. The Pacific Mail steamship China, said to be the largest vessel in the Pacific waters, entered Honolulu harbor for the first time this morning. The provisional government ordered a salute fired in honor of the event.

How Much longer will cities of the fourth class have to wait for a new charter? Is there some scheme in delaying action on the bill now pending?

Omo Republicans are already trying to comfort themselves with the statement that the Buckeye State is all right this year. But when they think of the election last fall it takes lots of whistling to keep up their courage.

THE attendance at the World's Fair on Sundays continues to dwindle. Last Sunday the admissions, free and paid, scarcely reached 40,000, and it is said the grounds had "a deserted appearance." Where were all "the working people?"

Chicago doesn't intend to allow any counterattractions to her big show. Her police jailed an evangelist last week who was conducting an open-air religious meeting. If the man had been operating a robbing scheme, he would probably have not been molested.

Last summer the departments at Washington City were furnished ice at 17 cents per 100 pounds. This year the dealers combined and demanded 35 cents per 100 pounds. Result: A Philadelphia company will furnish the ice. This is a good way to freeze out combines.

It has been discovered at last why ex-Labor Commissioner Peck of New York, the Republican pet, forfeited his bail a few days ago and skipped out to Europe. The appointment of Ben Johnson last week to be Collector of the Louisville district was a "knock-out" of the Courier-Journal crowd. Here's the way it tried to explain things: "But it seems No. cancelled this quarter..... that Judge Lindsay felt that his re-election depended upon the appointment of Mr. Johnson, and as the President appears to have entered into an agreement with Judge Lindsay to secure his re-election, his wishes prevailed, even over those of the Secretary of the Treasury."

This is the second time within a year that Judge Lindsay has downed the "gang." And he's ready for 'em again.

The Indianapolis Journal says: "In 1880 the amount of United States bonds held in Europe was $537,000,000. It is estimated from the checks for interest on bonds sent abroad that $18,500,000 of the national securities are now held abroad. This is one of the results of the Republican policy." "In other words," says the Louisville Post, "the Republican policy forced the return of American securities. To pay for them the country's gold reserve has been depleted, money has been scarce and high and times hard. What a good thing it would be if we could induce Europe again to take $500,000,000 of our securitles and send us gold for them. The country was not ready to pay that debt, but because of Republican legislation there has been a run on our gold. But why should a Republican journal glory in lt?"

A SHADE TREE.

It Was Cut Down and a Law Suit Followed-An Interesting Case in Court.

The case of Dora against Bauder, which has been on trial in the Circuit Court for several days, went to the jury late yesterday afternoon.

The case is a little out of the ordinary.
The plaintiffs M.O. Dora and wife owned a house and lot on the east side of Limestone street, south of Fourth. At the edge of the pavement in front had stood a handsome shade tree for years, but sometime early last summer it was cut down by Charles Bauder.

Mr. Bauder claimed he was acting under the orders of Street Commissioner James Hasson, and Mr. Hasson claimed he had orders from the City Council to remove the tree.

remove the tree.

Suit was brought against Mr. Bauder for $500 damages. He had the city made a co-defendant, but there was no record showing that the tree had been ord. declared a nuisance or that Council had ordered it to be cut down, and the case was dismissed as far as the city was ort to attend the "fofe of July" celebracase was dismissed as far as the city was concerned. Both sides were ably represented, Judge Coons, Mr. George R. Gill and Mr. L. W. Galbraith being the attorneys for plaintiffs, while Judge Cole and Mr. Thomas M. Wood represented defendants fendants.

It was argued by defendants' attorneys that the city owned the street and pave-ment and had a right to cut the tree down, but the court ruled that the property-ownor has a fee simple to the middle of the street, the city only having an easement in the street.

The jury was instructed to find for plaintiffs.

Mr. Jas. Hasson was a co-defendant in the suit. The jury reported a verdict against him and Mr. Bauder this morning, fixing the damages at $50.

sitting on a jury. It is the first time the question has been raised, we believe. Section 225 of the Criminal Code provides, "The court shall, on motion of either party, and before argument to the jury, instruct the jury on the law applicable to the case, which shall always be given in writing." Congressman Dickerson made the point that each juryman should be able to read the instructions himself and if he candly not do this beauty. himself and if he could not do this he was disqualified as a juryman. The Judge sustained the objection.

KLINE TRAGEDY AT INDIANAPOLIS. It Remains a Mystery, With but Little Hope of Being Solved.

Indianapolis, June 27.—William Kline of Brightwood, who was ,hacked with a hatchet last week, is now able to talk for brief periods. He has said many things to his physician, relatives and friends, but has not told who attempted to assassinate him. The assault upon him is almost the only topic

Some of the gossips are of the opinion that the smaller cuts were made with a knife, or, perhaps, with a pair of scissors found in the bedroom, and which have upon them spots of rust.

The part of the brain that was penetrated and which is exposed is decomposing and gradually sloughing away. The physicians say Kline can not be himself again intellectually, and his memory may be so affected as to make it impossible to recall incidents just preceding the attack.

it impossible to recall incidents just preceding the attack.

New theories are being built up daily. The injured man's brother Mike advances this one: Before he (Mike) joined the regular army, four or five years ago, he was paying affectionate attention to a certain young woman. While he was on duty away west another young man endeavored to supplant him in the woman's affections, and succeeded so far as to become engaged to her. He had bought a house and was getting it ready for housekeeping when Mike returned home. This kindled the old love anew, and the engagement was broken and the woman became Mike's wife. He had bought a house and was getting it ready for housekeeping when Mike returned home. This kindled the old love anew, and the engagement was broken and the woman became Mike's wife. It is said that the second hinsband vowed that he would kill the man who married his one-time fiance. This man lives in the city.

The injured man is still improving, and is eating more. There is no mistaking what he wants and when he wants it. He is showing a liking for beef extract with egg broken into it. Reporters and other visitors are prohibited from seeing him, Mrs. Kline says, by doctor's orders. The nervous excitement, she says, is too much for him, and he sniftered something like a spasm yesterday. Mrs. Kline states also that she has been advised not to talk further to reporters, except to report the condition of her husband. "I have told them all I know about it, and it's not used to be the first had anything different to the first had anything different to the first had anything different to the first had a seen anything different to the first had a seen alvised not to talk further to reporters, except to report the condition of her husband. One story is that Mrs. Kline sent h children out that morning to pi flowers, and when they returned se them out again. The the little on were seen playing under the trees, a Belle, the eldest, a very bright child 8 years, was asked about it. "N mamma didn't send us. We asked h if we could go and pick some flower She said yes, and we went and picked big bonquet and took it home, and th went to get another bonquet. NEW HAMPSHIRE HEARD FROM. Her State Building at the World's Fair and interesting ceremonies the New Hampshire state building was opened Governor John B. Smith and staff and about 75 prominent citizens of New Hampshire arrived in Chicago a week ago and have been seeing the fair. Since that time the party has been increased by the arrival of members of the legislature, state officials and others.

Dedicated. Cincado, June 27.-With appropriate

Governor Smith and the members of the New Hampshire delegation left the Auditorium hotel in a carriage and entered the fair grounds at the Fifty-sixth street gate. Governor Smith's military escort was the Amoskeng veterans about 150 in number.

The building was decorated extensively with bunting and flags, and the sively with binning and mags, and the Iowa State band played a patriotic air when the party left the building. In a short address E. N. Shaw, executive commissioner, delivered the keys of the building to C. M. Amsden, president of the board of commissioners, who then tendered them to Governor Smith in an extrataining talk entertaining talk.

Governor Smith in answer delivered an address full of patriotic thoughts. He was followed by Lieutenant Governor At the court of the co ernor McLane and others. At the con-clusion of the exercises the governor was tendered a complimentary recep-tion. The building was filled with people, many besides natives of the state being in attendance.

The building is a very attractive one, and a type of the magnificent scenery of the state has been reproduced in miniature on the second floor, lighted by electricity and producing an effect with which no painting could compare in vividness.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect lax-ative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidncys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will notaccept any substitute if offered.

FOR 20 YEARS Has led all Worm Remedies. EVERY BOTTLE GUARANTEED. Propared by BICHARDSON MEDICINE CO., 67, LOUIS.
